General contractor was the Thompson and Street Co. of Charlotte, N.C. and Atlanta. Permanent fold-away seats were added during 1976, increasing football capacity to its present level. Executive Director, Stadium Authority — Leroy Johnson Stadium Manager — T. Herman Graves.

TED TURNER — PRESIDENT

R.E. "Ted" Turner has often been described as a "modern day hero among today's masses." It's not a tag he has intentionally received, but one that came about because of the popularity he earned through his bold and successful communications and sports acquisitions.

A television magnate and sportsman, Turner has combined his interest in the two to expand "a small UHF television station" into the most watched single channel throughout the United States. WTBS, channel 17 in Atlanta, is known as "The SuperStation" to cable watchers around the country. And the Atlanta Braves have become known as "America's Team" among their fans in all 50 states.

The dynamic Turner became owner of the Braves on Jan. 14, 1976 when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Corporation, now called Turner Broadcasting System.

Turner completely rebuilt a yearly also-ran into a club which won a division championship for the first time in 13 years in 1982 and is talented and youthful enough to be considered a serious contender for years to come. He is not an owner afraid to spend money to satisfy his players or improve his team. The Braves signed free agent pitchers Terry Forster and Pete Falcone in December and in the past Turner has signed such players as Andy Messersmith, Gary Matthews, Al Hrabosky, Mike Lum, Claudell Washington and Gaylord Perry. In addition, the Braves under Turner have produced such players as Dale Murphy, Glenn Hubbard, Rafael Ramirez and Steve Bedrosian through an improved farm system. By adding quality instructors for each facet of the game at every stop in the Braves' minor league chain the Atlanta farm system has become one of the most productive in baseball.

Turner has become a household word in the world of sports not only through his ownership of the Braves and basketball Hawks, but also because he was formerly a star performer himself as a yachtsman of considerable achievement.

Turner's most notable deed as a participant came in 1977 when he skippered "Courageous" to victory in the prestigious America's Cup races. He was named Yachtsman of the Year for the third time by the New York Yacht Club on the strength of those wins. Also won the award in 1978.

It is in the field of television where Turner has almost revolutionized the industry. His "SuperStation," which resulted from a bold move by Turner, now reaches 50 states, Puerto Rico and a Caribbean circuit. WTBS is carried into 26 million homes, almost one-third of the nation's total of 83 million tv households. On June 1, 1980 Turner started Cable News Network, the first 24-hour all news television station. CNN reaches over 18 million homes in 50 states and the Virgin Islands. A third Turner broadcasting system, CNN2 made its debut on Dec. 31, 1981 at 11:45 p.m. CNN Headline Service is a national, 24-hour, fast-paced news network operating in 30-minute cycles which reaches into over 2.5 million homes throughout the U.S. Additionally, Turner is forging ahead in the telecommunications industry with his own original programming. Turner Broadcasting Systems is pioneering made-for-cable features including "Portrait of America", a five-year series of documentaries profiling each of the 50 states, and Jacques Cousteau specials.

Turner was born in Cincinnati, O., on Nov. 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960 at the age of 22 and in 1963, became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970 Turner Communications Corporation merged with Rice Broadcasting, with Turner becoming general manager of the flagship station, WTCG (now WTBS), in Atlanta.

The Federal Communications Commission approved use of a satellite system in 1976 which allowed Turner Communications to beam WTBS's signal across the United States.

Turner is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Atlanta Yacht Club, and the Capital City Club.

Turner and his wife, the former Jane Shirley Smith of Birmingham, Ala., have homes in Roswell, Georgia and South Carolina. They have five children, Laura Lee, R.E. Turner, IV, Rhett, Beau and Jean.

BILL BARTHOLOMAY — CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Bill Bartholomay has been involved with the Braves as a director or owner for over 20 years. He purchased the Braves with a group in Nov., 1962 and served as Chairman of the then Milwaukee Braves. Bill was highly instrumental in bringing the club to Atlanta. Prior to his involvement with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

One of Bill's most popular moves as an owner of the Braves was to sign an aged Satchel Paige to a contract in 1968 so he could accumulate enough time to qualify for pension. According to Bartholomay it was brought to his attention that Satchel Paige, "perhaps the greatest pitcher in the history of baseball, had been prevented for the bulk of his career, because of the color barrier, from playing in major league baseball. He had therefore not accumulated enough time to qualify for the pension...We made room on our roster to sign him on even though his age was well over sixty, which made him the oldest player ever to sign a major league contract."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many other hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of the Board and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Frank B. Hall & Co. Inc., one of the largest international insurance brokerage firms.

AL THORNWELL — EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT

Al Thornwell helped get the Braves to championship caliber in a hurry. The Braves won the National League West in Thornwell's third year as the club's top operating officer, drawing an Atlanta-record 1,801,985 in the process.

Thornwell became Executive Vice President of the Braves Feb. 6, 1980. The Atlanta native oversees all operating procedures of the team and represents the Braves at National League and major league meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Braves, the longtime Georgia businessman is also president and treasurer of E.A. Thornwell, Inc., a family owned electrical distributorship, and Elliott's Container Service, Inc., of Augusta, Ga.

He sits on several boards of directors, including Turner Broadcasting System, whose Atlanta-based WTBS televises Braves games into 50 states. He also is a member of the TBS Audit Committee. Al has served on the Braves Board of Directors since Ted Turner purchased the team prior to the 1976 season and currently is Corporate Secretary of the Braves.

Thornwell was Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of the Atlanta Chiefs Soccer Club which, under his direction, won the Eastern Division title of the NASL indoor season in 1979-80.

He is President of the Stadium Club in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium and is active in numerous civic, charitable and community organizations. The Braves' Executive Vice President is a lawyer by education but has not been involved in actual practice.

JOHN MULLEN — GENERAL MANAGER

John Mullen has orchestrated player movements helping the Atlanta Braves to become current champions of the National League West. During the 1982 season he traded for Bob Watson and Pascual Perez, two players instrumental in the club's stretch drive for the division championship. Foremost among John's trade acquisitions is first baseman Chris Chambliss, obtained from Toronto during the 1979 baseball winter meetings.

When John became General Manager of the Atlanta Braves in May, 1979, it was a homecoming of sorts. His career in baseball began with the Braves' organization when it was based in Boston some 36 years ago. In fact, Mullen, and broadcaster Ernie Johnson, are the only current members of the organization who have served the Braves when the club was based in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

John came back to the Braves from Houston, where he was Assistant to the General Manager. Upon accepting the Braves' General Manager's post, a position vacant because of the death of Bill Lucas, John said, "My family and I hate to leave Houston, but the opportunity is too good to pass up. I can't pass up the chance to run my own club, especially when it's the Braves."

John's original tenure with the Braves began in Jan. 1947 after having taken a part-time position the previous month. He was Assistant Farm Director until May, 1953 when he became Farm Director for the franchise, which had vacated Boston for Milwaukee. During his years as Farm Director until 1966, John is credited with having signed many Braves players who developed into World Champions in 1957, National League pennant winners in 1958, and division winners in 1969. Some players signed under his direction include Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews (both Hall of Famers), Phil Niekro, Johnny Logan, Del Crandall, Lee Maye and Mike Lum.

John left the Braves in Sept. 1966, when he went to work for the Houston Astros as assistant to Director of Player Personnel and Manager Grady Hatton. At mid-season, he became the Assistant to the General Manager, the position he held until returning to the Braves in 1979.

Upon return to his original organization, John has maintained the Atlanta Braves' philosophy of developing from within by having a strong minor league organization. This is a philosophy that has been adhered to since his previous years with the Braves. "Baseball has changed greatly because of escalating salaries and long term no-trade contracts," Mullen says. "But signing and developing your own players is still the best avenue for success. Trading has become less and less important."

John's baseball background gives him years of experience in analyzing talent. In previous years with the Braves he oversaw the signing and development of players who worked their way up to the major leagues. While with Houston, Mullen spent most of his time scouting players in the American and National Leagues with the purpose of judging major league talent to assist in trading. It is this development of baseball savvy which makes John so valuable to the Braves organization.

Mullen served four years in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. He and his wife Claire have a daughter, Kathleen, and two sons, Christopher and Richard. In his leisure time, John is a noted tenor.

HENRY AARON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Hank Aaron, elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January, 1982, is in his seventh year as Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Braves.

The greatest home run hitter of all time missed by just nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Willie Mays, who got 409 votes in 1979, received more votes in the annual election, and only Ty Cobb, who received 98.2 percent of the vote in the first balloting in 1936, received a higher percentage. Aaron, along with Frank Robinson, was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on Aug. 1, 1982.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office when he was named to his current post of Vice President and Director of Player Development by club president Ted Turner on October 7, 1976. Hank ended his playing career as one of the game's immortals with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1976.

In the past seven years Aaron has overseen the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship. Dale Murphy, the Braves' first N.L. MVP since Aaron himself won the award in 1957, Glenn Hubbard, Rafael Ramirez, Steve Bedrosian and Terry Harper are just a few of the current Braves who came up through Atlanta's farm system under Aaron's direction. The current Braves' roster has one of the highest percentages of "home grown talent" in baseball.

In his 23-year major league career Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more major league batting records than any other player in the game's history. Included in his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Games, Lifetime, 3,298; Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Plate Appearances, Lifetime, 13,940; Most At-Bats, Lifetime, 12,364; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755.

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974 when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing.

On May 17, 1970, Hank became the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He is one of five players to ever hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases in a season, doing it in 1963.

Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963.

He played 21 of his 23 seasons with the Braves and was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers for outfielder Dave May and minor league pitcher Roger Alexander at the end of the 1974 season.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank, Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Lary is a minor league outfielder for the Braves.

JOE TORRE

MANAGER NO. 9

Joseph Paul Torre. Born July 18, 1940, at Brooklyn, N.Y. 6-1, 200. Graduated from St. Francis Prep School, Brooklyn, N.Y., 1958. Lives in Marietta, Ga.

Joe Torre, the Associated Press Manager of the Year, earned wide acclaim by leading the Braves to a division title in 1982 after taking over a club which had finished fifth the year before. The 89 games won by the Braves under Torre's guidance is second only to the total of 93 in 1969 in the 17 seasons the club has resided in Atlanta. Superbly handled a team whose pitching staff logged only 15 complete games. Only one major league team had less. Braves had finished last four of six seasons before Torre took over.

Became Atlanta's seventh full-time manager on October 23, 1981. Returned to the organization which launched his professional career in 1960, spending time in between at St. Louis, where he won a National League batting title, and the New York Mets, for whom he played and later managed.

Torre broke into the majors with the old Milwaukee Braves in 1961, hitting .278 in 113 games. That year he finished second to Billy Williams in N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting. . . When the Braves made their move to Atlanta from Milwaukee, Torre introduced himself to Atlanta fans in a big way. On opening night in 1966 he connected for a long homer off Pittsburgh Pirates lefthander Bob Veale to become the first Brave to hit one for the distance in championship competition. The power-hitting catcher ended the season with 36 home runs which turned out to be the top one-season mark in his career.

The Braves traded Torre to the St. Louis Cardinals on March 17, 1969, getting first baseman Orlando Cepeda in return. It was at St. Louis where Torre went on his celebrated diet and went on to win a batting championship in addition to playing solid first and third base for a club which had Tim McCarver and later Ted Simmons behind the plate. Torre won the batting crown with a .363 average in 1971 and also led the N.L. with 230 hits and 137 RBIs that season. All three figures were personal season highs for Torre.

The Cardinals traded Torre to the New York Mets on Oct. 13, 1974 for Ray Sadecki and Tommy Moore. Joe was named the Mets' player-manager on May 31, 1977, replacing Joe Frazier. He became the first player-manager in the National League since Solly Hemus directed the Cardinals in 1959. Joe took himself off New York's active roster on June 18, 1977.

Joe batted .297 during his 18-year major league career. He finished with 2,342 hits and 1,185 RBIs, placing him 69th and 55th, respectively, on the all-time lists. The last of Torre's 252 lifetime home runs came as a pinch-hitter against St. Louis' Clay Carroll on April 13, 1977. Torre's honors as a player were many after he began his professional career in Eau Claire in 1960. He played in eight All-Star games, was named to The Sporting News post-season all-star squad on five occasions and gained his greatest honor as a player in 1971 when he was named the National League's Most Valuable Player.

Torre is known as a hard-nose "leader" type who has always had the respect of his peers. He possesses an even temper and a keen sense of humor which is often revealed at delicate times. Such was the case on July 21, 1975, when the burly righthanded hitter grounded into a record-tying four double plays. "I couldn't have done it," deadpanned Torre after the game, "without the help of Felix Millan." (Millan was on base each time ahead of Torre.)

Upon winning the Manager of the Year award Torre said, "This has to compare with winning the 1971 Most Valuable Player Award, but I like this one a little better because we finished first. When I won the MVP, we finished second." Torre is the first to be named both the N.L.'s MVP by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the N.L.'s top manager by the Associated Press.

ROBERT GIBSON

COACH NO. 45

Robert Gibson. Born Nov. 9, 1935 at Omaha, Neb. 6-1½, 198. Graduated from Omaha Technical High School, attended Creighton University, Omaha, Neb. Married Wendy Nelson, has two daughters, Rene and Annette. Lives in Bellevue, Neb.

Bob, one of baseball's all-time hard throwers, is an Atlanta pitching coach along with Rube Walker for the second consecutive season in 1983. Highly thought of by manager Joe Torre for competitive nature. When Torre was asked why he has two pitching coaches he replied, "I have Rube to teach the pitchers to pitch and Gibby to teach 'em to win." Torre also says 'Gibby had the killer instinct. If he got past the seventh inning with a one-run lead, well, he was like a lot of other pitchers with a 10-run lead." The former St. Louis Cardinal teammates remain good friends and usually kill spare time before games playing cribbage.

Gibson had a sterling major league pitching career and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1981. Was only the 11th player to be named to the Hall on his first try as he gathered 337 of 401 possible votes.

A six-time All-Star selection and the N.L.'s MVP in 1968, Bob established numerous pitching records during his career. His 3,117 strikeouts led National League pitchers until surpassed by Steve Carlton in 1981 and Tom Seaver in 1982. Prior to 1983 campaign ranked sixth all-time in K's on the major league list. . .His 1.12 ERA in 1968, when he went 22-9 while pitching 305 innings, established a major league mark for the lowest ERA for a 300-inning season. Won the Cy Young award that year and again in 1970. . . Led the Cardinals to World Series titles in 1964 and 1967, winning Series' MVP each year. Struck out 17 Detroit Tigers to set a World Series record in 1968. . . In 17 big league seasons pitched a no-hitter (Aug. 14, 1971 vs. Pittsburgh), two one-hitters and eight two-hitters.

Attended Creighton University on a basketball scholarship and went on to play with the Harlem Globetrotters in 1957-58. . .Is owner of "Bob Gibson's Restaurant" in Omaha and chairman of a bank. Did color commentary on WTBS-TV college basketball schedule during 1982-83 season.

TOMMY BOGGS

P NO. 40

Thomas Winton Boggs. Born Oct. 25, 1955, at Poughkeepsie, N.Y. Bats, throws right, 6-2, 200. Graduated from Lanier High School, Austin, Tex., 1974. Married Suzette A. Smith, has daughter, Brooke. Acquired — Contract obtained from Texas along with that of Adrian Devine and Ed Miller in exchange for Willie Montanez, Dec. 8, 1977.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 4 years, 101 days.

1982 SEASON: Tommy missed most of 1982 because of "slight tear of rotator cuff" in right shoulder. Pitched well before and after injury. ERA of 3.30 was his lowest for appearances during seven different major league seasons... Highlight of 1982 was no-hitter for six innings on Sept. 6 against San Francisco. Was removed because he reached his injury-caused pre-game limit of 80 pitches... Was counted on heavily as a regular starter but went down with injury in third appearance vs. Cincinnati on April 20. Reported to Richmond on 20-day Rehabilitation Assignment July 27. In three starts in AAA was 1-1 with a 1.50 ERA. Had 13 strikeouts in 12 innings... Returned to Atlanta and made his first big league appearance in over four months on Aug. 31 at Philadelphia. Pitched six innings and allowed just three hits and no runs in Atlanta win. Then came his six-inning no-hitter vs. Giants.

CAREER: Plagued by hard luck in 1981 when he won only three of 16 decisions. Club was shut out four times when Boggs was pitching that year and numerous times were held scoreless while he was on the mound... Pitched a two-hitter and lost on April 15, 1981 at Houston... Later in season the Braves scored no runs in six consecutive starts while Boggs was the pitcher of record and he lost a club record nine straight games... Twelve of Tommy's 20 major league wins came in 1980, a year in which he also recorded three shutouts. Won seven of last eight decisions to finish 12-9 that year... Boggs' first major league shutout came against Philadelphia on July 25, 1978 when he pitched a 2-hitter. He shut out the Phillies on a 7-hitter exactly two years later... Made first major league start as a 20-year-old with Texas Rangers in 1976... Came to Atlanta on Dec. 8, 1977 in trade along with Pitcher Adrian Devine and Ed Miller for Willie Montanez.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Was the second pick in the nation when the Rangers selected him in the 1974 June draft.

RICK CAMP

P NO. 37

Rick Lamar Camp. Born June 10, 1953 at Trion, Ga. Bats, throws right. 6-1. 198. Graduated from Trion High School, 1971. Attended West Georgia College, Carrollton, Ga. Married Debbie Hider. Lives in Trion. Acquired — Signed after selection in 6th round of 1974 June draft by Red Wooten.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 5 years, 25 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 6 years, including 3 year extension, thru 1986.

1982 SEASON: Rick started the season in the bullpen but successfully made the conversion to starter in June. Had struggled in role of late inning stopper and was 3-3 with four saves and a 4.71 ERA when he received his first start at S.F. on June 13. He recorded a win after allowing just one run in 5 2/3 innings. It was his first start since 1978 and only his sixth in the majors... Was nominated for another start on June 27 at Cincinnati. Pitched well, allowing just three hits and no runs in seven innings, but did not receive the decision when Atlanta won 2-0 in 14 innings. Braves tied a major league record by turning seven double plays in the game, proof that Rick had regained control of his sinker pitch... Braves were 5-0 in Camp's first five starts... Pitched first major league complete game at Chicago, allowing just one earned run and six hits in 4-2 win... Also recorded complete games in victory over Philadelphia on Aug. 23 and loss to San Diego on Sept. 26... Was 2-0, 1.17 ERA vs. Philadelphia in '82... ERAs at home and away were nearly identical. Camp was 6-5, 3.65 ERA at Atlanta Stadium and 5-8, 3.66 ERA on the road.

CAREER: Has a career mark of 22-9 at home but only 12-19 on the road... Is 5-2, 1.31 ERA lifetime vs. Philadelphia; 4-2, 1.64 ERA vs. Montreal and 4-1, 1.56 ERA vs. San Francisco... Was one of premier relievers in N.L. during 1980-81 when he recorded 39 saves... Rick was named N.L.'s Co-Pitcher of the Month of August, 1981, with the Giants' Ed Whitson. Was Player of the Week in the N.L. for June 1-7, 1981 and Co-Player of the Week with New York's Neil Allen for Aug. 17-23, 1981... His 1.78 ERA led National League relievers in 1981 and his nine wins tied for the lead among relief pitchers. Rick finished second by just two points to the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter for the N.L.'s Fireman of the Year (two points for a win or save and a minus point for a loss). Additionally, Rick exhibited extraordinary control by allowing just 1.42 walks per nine innings that year... Had a streak of 25 scoreless innings from May 17 thru Aug. 19, 1981... The Trion, Ga., native began his comeback from arm trouble by making the squad as a non-roster invitee at the Braves' 1980 spring training camp. Was originally slated to begin the season at AAA Richmond but was placed on roster when then-manager Bob Cox decided to go with a 10-man pitching staff. A late season headline in 1981 which read "'Washed-Up' Camp Braves Bullpen Ace" and nominations for comeback player of the year showed the dramatic turn around by the righthander... Rick's 77 relief appearances in 1980 broke Clay Carroll's Braves record of 73 appearances set in 1966. Was Player of the Week in the N.L. for his performance from Sept. 22-28, 1981 when he allowed no baserunners in the three games and recorded three saves... Rick earned his way on Braves pitching staff in 1977 with sensational spring. However, his spot on the roster was taken on Opening Day by Andy Messersmith, signed as a free agent.

PERSONAL/MISC.: A native Georgian, Camp was an all-state football player at Trion High School and had college offers... Helped save the life of a companion during a boating mishap in the winter of 1977-78 when a boat overturned in the Coosa River. Rick jumped into freezing water to pull companion to safety... He is an avid fisherman and hunter.

1969) and career, 86 (previously 78)... Recorded a 1.14 ERA on the road in '82... Was 2-0, 0.00 ERA vs. Cincinnati; recorded a 1.17 ERA vs. New York, 1.13 vs. Chicago, 1.69 vs. Houston, and 1.74 vs. Philadelphia. Had five saves each vs. Reds and Padres... Participated in six combined shutouts including two vs. Phillies... Got off to a blazing start. Was 4-0 with seven saves in first 15 games. From mid-May to mid-June did not allow a run in nine consecutive games covering 15.1 innings. Allowed just six hits and two walks in that stretch... Did not allow a home run in 1982 until St. Louis' Ken Oberkfell hit one on July 7... All four homers allowed by Garber came at Atlanta Stadium... From late August thru mid-September Garber went 10 games without allowing an earned run, a stretch of 18.1 innings... In last 15 games of season recorded a 0.94 ERA... Opposing hitters batted just .235 against Geno in '82, including .214 on the road... Is also a good fielder. Tied for first in the N.L. for most double plays participated in by a pitcher, 5.

CAREER: Ranked seventh all-time with 149 career saves prior to 1983 season. Recorded 95 saves from 1975-1979... Garber's reemergence as a top flight stopper actually began in 1981 but was overshadowed by the late inning heroics of Rick Camp and set back by an injury. He hurt his ankle on a freak play in Chicago on May 3 that year. While running toward first on an infield grounder Garber heard something "pop" in his ankle when he threw to the bag. He learned the next day he had suffered an ankle fracture... Following the injury Garber came back strong during the remainder of the season. Had a string of 11 consecutive appearances from Aug. 22 thru Sept. 13 without allowing an earned run... Recorded 22 saves with Braves in 1978 after coming to Atlanta in a mid-June trade... Later that year combined with Larry McWilliams to stop Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Struck out Rose in his last at-bat... Has been particularly tough against his old team. Is 2-1, 1.06 ERA against the Phillies... Garber is 9-4, 1.67 ERA vs. New York and 9-4, 2.27 ERA vs. Los Angeles... Geno is characterized by his sidewinding style. "I tried it once in the International League, it worked, and I stuck with it," he explains.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Works on farm in Lancaster County, Pa., in off-season.

BOB HORNER

INF NO. 5

James Robert Horner. Born Aug. 6, 1957 at Junction City, Kan. Bats, throws right. 6-1, 215. Graduated from Apollo (Arizona) High School, attended Arizona State University. Married Christine Berry, has one son, Richard Tyler. Lives in Dunwoody, Ga. Acquired — Signed after selection as nation's No. 1 pick in June, 1978 draft by Tom Morgan.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 4 years, 108 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: Four years, thru 1986.

1982 SEASON: With Dale Murphy forms one of top young hitting tandems in major leagues... Was headed toward career highs in both homers and RBIs in 1982 before falling to injury on Sept. 18. Still, his 97 RBIs were just one short of his top mark of 98 in 1979 and his 32 homers fell just three shy of 35 hit in 1980... Has hit over 30 homers three of last four years... Bob did set personal marks of 13 game-winning RBIs, 85 runs scored, 24 doubles and 66 walks in '82... Moved into second place on all-time Atlanta home run list behind Hank Aaron and third place behind Aaron and Murphy in RBIs... Hit two home runs in game four times in '82: June 30 vs. Houston, July 4 vs. Cincinnati, July 28 vs. San Diego and Aug. 25 vs. Philadelphia... Had five hits in game at San Francisco (2 doubles, 3 singles), June 12 and four hits in Montreal (1 double, 3 singles), May 19... Fourteen-game hitting streak from April 24 thru May 13 (.404, 7 HR, 12 RBIs) tied for second high on Braves in '82... Hit .287 with runners in scoring position... Most of Horner's 1982 home runs were hit in four streaks: hit seven homers in 11 games from April 24 thru May 9, seven home runs in eight games from June 30 thru July 8, five homers in nine games from July 28 thru Aug. 4 and five homers in 10 games from Sept. 6-15... Hit back-to-back homers with Dale Murphy on consecutive nights against Chicago April 28 & 29, both in the eighth inning. Ironically, though the two had played together four previous seasons, it was only the second and third times they accomplished the feat...Achieved an oddity on July 27 when he reached base five times without an official at-bat. San Diego pitching issued Horner three walks and hit him with a pitch twice...Bob was named to the N.L. all-star team for the first time in '82...Hit .328 with five homers and 10 RBIs vs. Giants, .318 with three homers and 13 RBIs vs. Phillies and .318 with three homers and 11 RBIs vs. St. Louis. Hit five home runs against Cincinnati...Tied for 3rd in N.L. in fielding percentage among third basemen, .970.

CAREER: Horner has hit 19 career homers off San Francisco pitchers, 17 against Cincinnati and Houston...He has a .324 career average against the Padres, .319 vs. the Phillies and a .305 vs. the Dodgers...Led the Braves in home runs for four years from 1978-81...Hit 100th career home run off Houston's Nolan Ryan, Sept. 9, 1981...Finished second in the N.L. in home runs (behind Mike Schmidt) with 35 in 1980. Teammate Murphy finished third with 33 home runs, marking the first time that two N.L. players from the same team finished in the top three in homers since the Braves' Davey Johnson and Darrell Evans accomplished the feat in 1973...In 1980 Bob was named N.L.'s Player of the Month of July when he hit 14 home runs and had 33 RBIs. His 14 homers in July fell one short of the major league record for that month shared by Joe Adcock, Hank Greenberg and Joe DiMaggio...Hit six home runs in five games from Sept. 29 thru Oct. 3, 1981, just one short of the National League mark held by Jim Bottomley, Johnny Bench and Mike Schmidt. Was named Player of Week in the N.L. for the feat...In 1979 and 1980 Bob drove in runs in eight consecutive games to tie a Braves' record previously set by Eddie Mathews and tied twice by Hank Aaron...Has hit two home runs in single games 17 times...Bob finished fifth in the N.L. with .314 average in 1979. His 20-game hitting streak was second longest in the league that year...Was named Rookie of the Year in 1978 by The Sporting News and the Baseball Writers Association of America...In first pro game hit a homer after being chosen as nation's No. 1 draft pick off Arizona State University campus. Homer came off Pittsburgh's Bert Blyleven, June 16, 1978, at Atlanta Stadium. Horner had one other hit, a single, in debut...Braves had planned to start Horner at AA Savannah following draft, but he talked them into staying with parent club...Set an Atlanta record with nine sacrifice flys that year.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Bob hit NCAA record 25 home runs at Arizona State...Was College World Series MVP in 1977...Was College All-American in 1977 and 1978 and College Player of the Year in 1978...In high school was all-state in baseball and lettered in basketball...One of manager Joe Torre's first official acts was to name Horner team captain.

Next two wins were complete game victories over St. Louis, May 16 and New York, May 25. On June 23 logged his fifth and final complete game of the season, a win over Los Angeles. A highlight of Rick's 1982 campaign was two-run homer in the game off Alejandro Pena in the sixth inning. Logged first major league complete game when he beat Houston, Sept. 23, 1981. . . Pitched in 15 games for Atlanta in 1979, all in relief. . . DALE MURPHY

OF NO. 3

Dale Bryan Murphy. Born March 12, 1956 at Portland, Ore. Bats, throws right. 6-5, 215. Graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School, Portland, 1974. Attended Brigham Young Unviersity, Provo, Utah. Married Nancy Thomas, has three sons, Chad, Travis Jay and Shawn. Lives in Lawrenceville. Acquired — Signed after selection in first round of June, 1974 draft by Bill Wight.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 5 years, 45 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 5 years, thru 1987.

1982 SEASON: Dale put it all together in 1982, culminating a season in which he led Braves to N.L. Western Division title by being named the league's Most Valuable Player. Dale became only the fourth Brave ever, and first since Hank Aaron in 1957, to win the award. The other winners were Johnny Evers in 1914, before the award was voted on by the Baseball Writers Association of America, and Bob Elliott in 1947. . . Was also named National League Player of the Year by The Sporting News and was the top vote-getter among outfielders on the Associated Press All-Star Team. . . Additionally, was named winner of the Gold Glove fielding award for the first time. . . Voted by fans to starting berth on N.L. All-Star squad which beat the A.L. in Montreal. Walked and scored a run in the game. . . Tied Montreal's Al Oliver for N.L. RBI title, (109); ranked second in home runs, (36) and runs (113); fourth in walks (93), seventh in slugging percentage, (.507), tied for 9th in game-winning RBIs (14) and finished 10th in on-base percentage (.378). Also stole 23 bases, third high on the Braves. Dale became the only Braves player besides Felix Millan in 1969 to play in 162 games in a season. . . Got off to a tremendous start and was named National League's Player of the Month of April when he hit six homers and drove in 22 runs while batting .280. Was also named N.L. Player of the Week for June 7-13 (.333, 3 homers and 9 RBI's). . . Became Atlanta's second ranking RBI leader behind Hank Aaron and his 128 career home runs trail just Aaron and teammate Bob Horner. . . Six of Dale's game-winning RBIs came in the seventh inning or later. . . Batted .296 with runners in scoring position. . . Twice hit two home runs in game: May 13 and July 29, both times against San Diego. . . Had two 11-game batting streaks: April 21 thru May 2 (.349, 3 homers, 13 RBIs) and Aug. 21-31 (.364, 3 homers, 14 RBIs). . . Narrowly missed hitting for cycle on July 16 at Chicago. Had a triple, double and two singles in five at-bats. Also stole two bases in the game. Dale homered off every opponent in '82. Although a righthanded hitter, Murf hit more home runs to right field, 15, than to left, 12. He also launched nine over the center field fence. . . Hit back-to-back homers with Bob Horner on consecutive nights against Chicago on April 28 & 29, both in the eighth inning. Ironically, though the two had played together four previous seasons, it was only the second and third time they accomplished the feat. . . Has remarkable speed for man his size. Stole two bases in an inning twice (June 15 vs. Houston and July 16 vs. Chicago) to tie an Atlanta record. Only Jerry Royster on the Braves has swiped two bases in a game twice in his career. . . Was truly awesome in four-game sweep of Padres from July 27-29. Had 11 hits in 16 at-bats for a .688 average, while banging out four homers and driving in seven runs. . . Hit .310 at home with 24 home runs and .348 against lefthanded pitching. . . Batted .418 with six homers and 16 RBIs vs. San Diego and .458 with five homers and 16 RBIs vs. Chicago. Also homered six times against the Giants.

CAREER: Signed by Braves as one of the most highly touted catching prospects in the nation in 1974. Played behind the plate throughout minor league career. Plagued by wild throwing arm, Murphy was moved to first base and the outfield after reaching the big leagues. It was at the latter where he found a home. Ironically, his strong, accurate throwing arm is one of biggest assets as an outfielder. In first two seasons in outfield Murphy ranked high in assists and double plays. Since reputation has grown, few runners attempt to take an extra base on him. . . Was selected to the N.L. All-Star Game squad for the first time as an outfielder in 1980. . . Finished third in the league that year in homers behind teammate Bob Horner and HR champ Mike Schmidt. It was the first time in the N.L. that two players on the same team finished in the top three in homers since the Braves' Davey Johnson and Darrell Evans in 1973. Also ranked third in the league in slugging percentage, .510, and runs scored, 98 that year. . . Was N.L.'s Player of the Month of August, 1980 and Co-Player of the Week with Dave Kingman for May 13-20, 1979. . . On May 18, 1979, Dale became the first Brave to hit three homers in a game since Mike Lum turned the trick in 1970. . . Has more lifetime homers off Padres pitching (21), than any other team.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Was voted Most Popular Player by Braves fans in 1982. . . Is Honorary Chairman, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. . . Was named all-state, all-city and most valuable player in school district his senior season at Woodrow Wilson High in Portland.

PASCUAL PEREZ

P NO. 27

Pascual Gross Perez. Born May 17, 1957, at Haina, Dominican Republic. Bats, throws right. 6-2, 162. Wife's name Maritza, has one child, Pascual, Jr. Lives in Santiago, Dominican Republic. Acquired — Obtained from Pittsburgh for contract of Larry McWilliams, June 29, 1982.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 1 year, 87 days.

1982 SEASON: The addition of Pascual Perez the last two months of the 1982 season helped solidify the Braves pitching staff. He pitched as a starter and in relief and helped the club down the stretch with his poise and confidence. . . But it was what he did off the field that etched his name permanently in the memories of Atlantans and baseball followers everywhere. The Braves had lost 19 of 21 games and had scheduled Perez to start against Montreal on Aug. 19. Perez passed his driver's exam that morning and drove to Atlanta Stadium by himself for the first time after receiving directions from fellow Latins, Rafael Ramirez and Rufino Linares. Perez got lost and circled I-285, the interstate around Atlanta, three times, running out of gas in the process. With his limited English he finally found his way to the stadium 10 minutes after game time. Phil Niekro started in his absence and the Braves were victorious. With tensions relieved the Braves won six in a row and 13 of 15 to move back into first place. . . Pascual came to the Braves on June 29 from Pittsburgh in exchange for pitcher Larry McWilliams. Placed on the Richmond roster, he won all five of his starts and was brought up to Atlanta on July 26. . . First appearance was in relief against Padres on July 27. Received no decision in 8-6 win, pitching 4-2/3 innings with one run allowed. . . Next assignment was a starting nod vs. Los Angeles on July 31. He took the loss when the Braves were shut out, 3-0. . . Started again at Los Angeles on Aug. 5 and received no decision after allowing no earned runs in eight innings. . . First win in Atlanta uniform came against Reds, Sept. 10. That broke a personal 11-game losing streak, including the last four with the Braves. . . Won his last four decisions with Atlanta, including two long relief assignments when each time he allowed no runs in 6-2/3 innings. . . Received starting assignment in Braves' first official playoff game at St. Louis (First game was rained out after 4½ innings with Phil Niekro on the mound.)

CAREER: Came up through the Pittsburgh Pirates organization after signing as a free agent in 1976. . . First major league appearance was start vs. L.A., May 7, 1980. Received no decision after holding Dodgers scoreless through five innings and to three runs through six. . . First big league win came on May 22, 1981, when he six-hit the Phillies. Five days later had a complete game win at Chicago but lost his next seven in a row to close out the season. . . Tied for league lead in shutouts (5) with Salem in Carolina League in 1978.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Plays winter ball at Aguilas in the Dominican League where he was 9-2 in 1982-83.

MATT SINATRO

C NO. 14

Matthew Stephen Sinatro. Born March 22, 1960 at Hartford, Conn. Bats. throws right. 5-9. 185. Graduated from Conard (W. Hartford) High School. 1978. Single. Lives in West Hartford. Acquired — Signed after selection in June, 1978 draft by Bob Turzilli.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 98 days.

1982 SEASON: Matt began the 1982 season with Atlanta but was returned to Richmond on May 5 because he was receiving little playing time and manager Joe Torre decided to go with just two catchers. But before he was sent down, Matt had a hand, or foot so to speak, in Braves' 13-game win streak at start of the season. In the 13th win, on April 21, a double play grounder toward short glanced off his spikes. Instead of the game being over, only the baserunner (Sinatro) was ruled out and the Braves went on to score two runs to come from behind to win the game. . . After stint at Richmond was recalled to Atlanta to aid in stretch drive on Aug. 15. . . Had two three-hit games, on Aug. 22 and Aug. 27, both against the Mets, in the latter game, in New York. Matt hit his first major league home run off Pete Falcone with family and friends in the stands.

CAREER: Despite his size, Matt is an excellent athlete. He has a superb throwing arm and surprising speed, particularly for a catcher. Has 78 stolen bases in less than five professional seasons. . . First major league hit was an RBI single off Houston's Joe Niekro, Sept. 23, 1981

PERSONAL/MISC.: Brother Greg played in Cincinnati Reds organization. . . Matt lettered in football and basketball, besides baseball, in prep career

KEN SMITH

INF NO. 11

Kenneth E. Smith. Born Feb. 12, 1958 at Youngstown, O. Bats left, throws right. 6-1, 213. Graduated from Youngstown High School, 1976. Married Deborah Marye Revels, has one son, Kenneth Earl, Jr. Lives in Youngstown. Acquired — Signed after selection in first round of June, 1976 draft by Al LaMacchia.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 143 days.

1982 SEASON: For Ken Smith, the 1982 season was a tale of two cities. Was sent from Atlanta to Richmond and back again three times. Began the 1982 campaign on the Atlanta roster but saw little action the first two weeks of the season... Optioned to Richmond on April 23 but recalled two weeks later... Smith immediately paid dividends. He had four hits in his next six at-bats as a pinch-hitter. Was given a start against Philadelphia in left field on May 21 and responded by going two-for-two with two walks... Sent back to Richmond on June 30 when Terry Harper was activated from disabled list. Recalled a week later when Harper was reinjured... Optioned to Richmond again on July 26 after limited pinch-hit opportunities... Brought back to Atlanta on Sept. 1 when rosters expanded... Helped lead Richmond to International League pennant and Braves to division championship... Normally a first baseman, Smith saw little action at that position with Chris Chambliss and Bob Watson ahead of him.

CAREER: Has good speed as evidenced by 87 career minor league stolen bases... Tied Southern League record by scoring six runs in one game in 1979... Saw action with Atlanta after September callup in 1981. Got first major league hit (a double) at Cincinnati off Joe Edelen on Oct. 2.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Became father for first time during off-season.

1982 SEASON: Bob was one of the mainstays of Atlanta's pitching staff in 1982, his first full big league season. Started for most of the year before late season slump relegated him to bullpen... Recorded two wins during Braves 13-game win streak at start of season... Was pitcher of record when Atlanta suffered first loss on April 22... First complete game victory in Braves uniform came against Chicago, May 2... First big league shutout came at Houston on June 15 when Walk pitched a four-hitter... Also pitched complete game victory against Padres, July 27... Won four of five decisions from July 4 thru Aug. 2... Had a 3-0 record vs. Cubs in '82... Braves were 16-11 in games Walk started last season.

CAREER: Got off to slow start with Braves because he was used sparingly by Phillies prior to spring training trade in 1981... Later suffered a rib injury... Bob's record in 1980 was 16-8. He started the year in Oklahoma City where he went 5-1 prior to being promoted to Philadelphia. He won his first six decisions with the World Champions... Started Game 1 of the 1980 World Series against Kansas City and received the victory as the Phillies defeated the Royals, 7-6. He lists that as his greatest thrill in baseball... Is 6-1 lifetime vs. Chicago and 3-1 vs. Cincinnati and San Francisco.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Enjoys hunting and gun collecting.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years, 90 days.

1982 SEASON: At no time has the value of free-agent acquisition Claudell Washington become more evident than the final month of the 1982 season. A veteran with experience on LCS and World Series teams in Oakland, Claudell responded under pressure to help a young Braves team keep an even keel. From Aug. 28 thru the end of the season Washington hit .315 with six homers and 35 RBIs, including five game-winners. In those 34 games he also scored 26 runs and stole 12 bases. The National League recognized his performance by naming him its Player of the Month of September... Also provided incentive to teammates on a West Coast road trip when he invited them to come to his home to view his World Series trophy. He told his fellow Braves this is what they're playing for... Has rare combination of speed and power. Led Braves with 33 stolen bases and six triples. Tied Dale Murphy for club leadership in game-winning RBIs (14). Finished second with 94 runs and tied for third with 24 doubles. Had career high 16 home runs including two in one game on Aug. 28 in New York... Stole three bases in game against Giants on Sept. 28... Had batting streaks of 13 and eight games in '82... Had five-hit game vs. Dodgers, Sept. 8 (1 homer, 1 double, 3 singles) and four-hit game vs. Mets, May 31 (1 homer, 3 singles)... Had three game-winning RBIs during Braves' 13-game win streak to start the season, including a two-run, ninth inning single with the Braves behind in game 13... Batted .338 with runners in scoring position... Hit .308 with four of his 16 home runs against the Dodgers. Hit .340 with three homers against the Mets.

CAREER: Has .378 lifetime average against his former New York team... Doubled his first time up in Braves uniform as leadoff batter, Opening Night, April 10, 1981, and later scored... Led Braves with .291 average that year. Finished second in hits and doubles... A good defensive outfielder who had 12 assists in only 70 games with Mets in 1980. Played for current Braves manager Joe Torre that year. Tied three New York records: hit three homers in game at Los Angeles on June 21; three doubles in game versus Braves, July 30 and had RBIs in seven consecutive games in July... Also hit three home runs in game with White Sox, July 14, 1979. Only Babe Ruth and Johnny Mize previously had three-homer games in both leagues... Claudell had five-hit game with Oakland in 1974. Was named to Topps Major League Rookie team that year... Played with American League All-Star team in 1976.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Signed by Oakland off Berkeley sandlots following graduation from Berkeley High School. Ran on track team but did not play baseball in high school and was scouted while playing Connie Mack ball. Became regular outfielder with Oakland at age 19 in 1974 after just one-half season in Double A and 141 games in Class A.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 — Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 — Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years but lost the series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 — Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 — New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 — New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score 7-4.

1982 — St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a major league record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games. The Cardinals exploded for five runs in the sixth inning to take the first game at St. Louis, 7-0. In game two the Cardinals scored single runs in the eighth and ninth innings to gain the win. The Braves returned to Atlanta for game three but could fare no better as St. Louis quickly scored four runs in the second inning in a 6-2 win.
